

Shelton Brister

New York, NY 10030

(479) 544 1622 | spb2150@columbia.edu

EDUCATION & HONORS

Columbia University, School of General Studies, New York, NY

Psychology Major | Statistics Concentration | GPA: 3.95

School of General Studies Honor Society | Dean's List

Expected graduation: May 2024

Relevant Coursework

Research Methods: Cognition & Decision-Making | Thinking & Decision-Making | Applied

Statistical Computing | Applied Linear Regression Analysis | Applied Categorical Data Analysis

RELEVANT WORK EXPERIENCE

Columbia University – Aly Lab – Research Assistant

New York, NY

May 2022 to present

Tasks: Attend to participants in attention studies; Collect and analyze data in statistical software

RESEARCH INTERESTS

- Cognitive psychology and the relationships between memory, perception, and decision-making
- Social psychology with an attention toward social influence, self-concept, and group processes

SKILLS

- Familiarity in data wrangling, analysis, and visualization using statistical software (R, SAS, Excel)
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office Suite Applications (Word, Excel, Powerpoint, Access)

ADDITIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE

Columbia University – Student Service Center/ ID Center – Administrative Assistant

New York, NY

September 2021 to present

Tasks: Assist university members with ID cards; redirect guests within the Student Service Center

Asurion – District Level Auditor – Lead Technician and Inventory Manager

Kansas City, MO / New York, NY

November 2015 to April 2021

Tasks: Lead teams in electronic repair; Audit inventory by location, company wide