

Moe Thinzar Khine

(Emily)

mk4432@columbia.edu | 61 West 108th Street, New York, New York, 10025

EDUCATION

Columbia University, School of General Studies – Bachelor of Arts

Expected Graduation: Dec 2023

EXPERIENCE

AidData – Researcher [Jan 2020 – May 2020]

- Research on elderly homelessness in South Africa
- Contributed to research paper for the U.S. State Department

Mental Health Advocate [August 2016 – Present]

- Initiated and organized 2 public mental health events
- Attended by over 300 people
- Covered by various media outlets

Bacon Street Youth and Family Services – Intern [Jan 2020 – March 2020]

- Strengthening Families Program facilitator
- Worked on preventing substance abuse behavior among teens and strengthening relationships within families

Striveful – Founder and Chief Executive Officer [Dec 2020 – Present]

- Organized and led a free 3-weekend program covering different topics for students in Myanmar
- Organized and leading a free 3-month academic program with clubs for students in Myanmar

7Cups – Intern [July 2017 – August 2017]

- Listened to and talked to people empathetically, providing a safe space
- Trained to listen to people with a variety of emotional and mental issues

CERTIFICATIONS

Strengthening Families Program Facilitator | Iowa State University | Feb 2020

Psychological First Aid | Coursera | June 2019

UX Fundamentals | CareerFoundry | July 2018

SKILLS

Languages: English (native) Burmese (native) Mandarin (proficient)

Tech: Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, Excel and Canva